What Our Graduates/Student Say

CHEW HEW WEN

Having studied at TAR UMT and IMI Switzerland, I've had the golden opportunity to meet new people and experience new things.

My experience gave me life-long friends locally and abroad, and the internship in the United States taught me how to adapt to new environments. These exposures broadened my perspectives and helped me become a better hospitality professional. It was a challenging experience, but the programmes taught at TAR UMT prepared me well to tackle them which will serve as valuable experiences when I embark on my hospitality career.

Bachelor of Hospitality Management (Honours), Year 3, TAR UMT - Graduated in 2022

GLODIE
LAI CHENG YAN

My time in TAR UMT has been a fun ride! The lecturers are experienced, passionate and inspiring. They are always ready to help and provide us the support we need. I would not have excelled in my studies without their help. On top of that, I experienced an exciting campus life with a diverse selection of clubs and societies, and accessible well-equipped facilities any tertiary student can be proud of. In a nutshell, studying at TAR UMT is one of the most memorable experiences I've ever had!

Currently pursuing Bachelor of Arts in English Studies (Honours)

FELICIA NATASHA

TAR UMT offered me a lot of opportunities to expand my knowledge in not just my field of interest, but also life in general. From the wide variety of facilities and activities to the insightful lecturers and helpful staff, the years I have spent here have been nothing short of delightful. Tertiary education may seem daunting due to the shift towards students' independence and self-reliant lifestyle, but the experiences I encountered in this institution are ones I will cherish for a long time. There is more to education than academic excellence, and TAR UMT demonstrated exactly that.
